16th Sunday after Pentecost

Over the next nine months of 2021-22, we will, again, be using the Narrative Lectionary readings in worship. After the New Year, we will focus on John's Gospel; but this fall, prior to the start of Advent, we will look at texts from the Old Testament with the theme: "Out of Chaos, Hope." Some of you may recognize this as the mission statement of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA), a service arm of our denomination that responds to crises such as fires and floods. For, as much as we might wish that God turn chaos into order, hope is really what we need the most; and we are called to join with God who is already at work in the world providing for that need.

WELCOMING SONG #13 The Mighty God with Power Speaks

Kingsfold

(verse 1)

The Mighty God with power speaks, and all the world obeys; from dawn until the setting sun, God's wonder earth displays. The perfect beauty all around from Zion's height shines forth; and stars across the firmament so brightly beam their worth.

(verse 2)

God comes not with a silent form, but riding on the winds; before God's face, the raging storm its blast of thunder sends. All hail the Judge, in bold array, whose promise is to bless; who sees our sins, yet also feels our thirst for righteousness.

(verse 3)

The heavens declare your justice, Lord, as endless as the sky; against the taunts of disbelief, our God will testify. Receive my heartfelt gift of thanks, as honor to your might; refresh my faith with each new day; protect me through the night.

CALL TO CONFESSION (adapted from I John 3)

L: Christ came to take away our sin and reclaim us as beloved children of God.
In that confidence, let us humbly confess our sin and the sin of this world:

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We follow too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We offend against your holy laws. We leave undone those things we ought to do, and do those things we ought not to do. O Lord, have mercy on us. Forgive those who confess their faults. Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to the world in Christ Jesus, our Lord. And grant, O merciful God, that we may live a holy, just, and humble life to the glory of your name.

TIME OF SILENT REFLECTION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L: Hear the good news. Hope does not disappoint us, for God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Believe this good news and give thanks. In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God. Amen.

CHORAL RESPONSE #765 May the God of Hope Go with Us Argentina
May the God of hope go with us every day, filling all our lives with love and joy and peace. May the God of justice speed us on our way, bringing light and hope to every land and race. Praying, let us work for peace; singing, share our joy with all; working for a world that's new, faithful when we hear Christ's call.

SCRIPTURE READING – Genesis 1:1 – 2:4a (Common English Bible)

1 When God began to create the heavens and the earth— 2 the earth was without shape or form, it was dark over the deep sea, and God’s wind swept over the waters— 3 God said, “Let there be light.” And so light appeared. 4 God saw how good the light was. God separated the light from the darkness. 5 God named the light Day and the darkness Night.

There was evening and there was morning: the first day.

6 God said, “Let there be a dome in the middle of the waters to separate the waters from each other.” 7 God made the dome and separated the waters under the dome from the waters above the dome. And it happened in that way. 8 God named the dome Sky.

There was evening and there was morning: the second day.

9 God said, “Let the waters under the sky come together into one place so that the dry land can appear.” And that’s what happened. 10 God named the dry land Earth, and he named the gathered waters Seas. God saw how good it was. 11 God said, “Let the earth grow plant life: plants yielding seeds and fruit trees bearing fruit with seeds inside it, each according to its kind throughout the earth.” And that’s what happened. 12 The earth produced plant life: plants yielding seeds, each according to its kind, and trees bearing fruit with seeds inside it, each according to its kind. God saw how good it was.

<sup>13</sup> There was evening and there was morning: the third day.

<sup>14</sup> God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night. They will mark events, sacred seasons, days, and years. <sup>15</sup> They will be lights in the dome of the sky to shine on the earth.” And that’s what happened. <sup>16</sup> God made the stars and two great lights: the larger light to rule over the day and the smaller light to rule over the night. <sup>17</sup> God put them in the dome of the sky to shine on the earth, <sup>18</sup> to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw how good it was.

<sup>19</sup> There was evening and there was morning: the fourth day.

<sup>20</sup> God said, “Let the waters swarm with living things, and let birds fly above the earth up in the dome of the sky.” <sup>21</sup> God created the great sea animals and all the tiny living things that swarm in the waters, each according to its kind, and all the winged birds, each according to its kind. God saw how good it was. <sup>22</sup> Then God blessed them: “Be fertile and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.”

<sup>23</sup> There was evening and there was morning: the fifth day.

<sup>24</sup> God said, “Let the earth produce every kind of living thing: livestock, crawling things, and wildlife.” And that’s what happened. <sup>25</sup> God made every kind of wildlife, every kind of livestock, and every kind of creature that crawls on the ground. God saw how good it was. <sup>26</sup> Then God said, “Let us make humanity in our image to resemble us so that they may take charge of the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the earth, and all the crawling things on earth.” <sup>27</sup> God created humanity in God’s own image, in the divine image God created them, male and female God created them. <sup>28</sup> God blessed them and said to them, “Be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and master it. Take charge of the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, and everything crawling on the ground.” <sup>29</sup> Then God said, “I now give to you all the plants on the earth that yield seeds and all the trees whose fruit produces its seeds within it. These will be your food. <sup>30</sup> To all wildlife, to all the birds in the sky, and to everything crawling on the ground—to everything that breathes—I give all the green grasses for food.” And that’s what happened. <sup>31</sup> God saw everything he had made: it was supremely good.

There was evening and there was morning: the sixth day.

<sup>2</sup> The heavens and the earth and all who live in them were completed. <sup>2</sup> On the sixth day God completed all the work that he had done, and on the seventh day God rested from all the work that he had done. <sup>3</sup> God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all the work of creation. <sup>4</sup> This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created.
